AFFIDAVIT OF THOMAS P. HEALY, JR.

Thomas P. Healy, Jr., being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. My name is Thomas P. Healy, Jr. I am the Associate General Counsel of the American Medical Association ("AMA").
2. As Associate General Counsel, I am responsible for the activities of the Corporate Law Division of the AMA. My duties include authorization and oversight of outside counsel in representing the AMA in certain legal matters.
3. I spoke with various representatives of the law firm of Speights & Runyan ("S&R") in late 2002 and early 2003. The subject of discussion was whether S&R would represent the AMA in this bankruptcy proceeding. I informed S&R that the AMA did not wish S&R to represent it in this proceeding.
4. Based on inquiry, I believe that no AMA representative authorized S&R to file a proof of claim on behalf of the AMA or otherwise represent the AMA in this or any other proceeding.

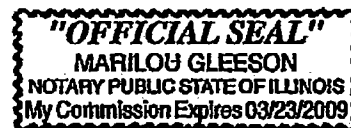

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

RE: W.R. Grace & Co., et al.
Case No. 01-1139 (JKF)
(Jointly Administered)

Dear Jan:

This firm is counsel to Maryland Casualty Company ("MCC") in the above-referenced bankruptcy cases ("Grace Bankruptcy Cases").

This letter will confirm that: (i) MCC has never retained the law firm of Speights & Runyan to represent MCC in the Grace Bankruptcy Cases; and (ii) MCC never authorized the law firm of Speights & Runyan to file a proof of claim on MCC's behalf in the Grace Bankruptcy Cases.

Yours truly,

SUBPOENA FOR RULE 30(b)(6) DEPOSITION

AFFIDAVIT OF AMY D. RICHARD

I, Amy D. Richard, do depose and state upon my personal knowledge as follows:

1. I am a paralegal at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates, Inc., ("Harvard Vanguard") located at 275 Grove Street, Newton, MA, and have been designated by the organization to testify as the deponent under Rule 30(b)(6) in the above-captioned matter.
2. Harvard Vanguard has not filed any proofs of claim in the above-captioned bankruptcy cases.
3. Harvard Vanguard has not retained the law firm of Speights and Runyan for the purpose of filing a proof of claim or for the purpose of representing Harvard Vanguard in the above-captioned bankruptcy cases.

SIGNED UNDER THE PENALTIES OF PERJURY THIS 7th DAY OF JULY, 2005.

Re: In re: W.R. Grace & Co., et al

Dear Attorney Dierkes:

In response to the 30(b)(6) deposition subpoena issued to Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates, Inc. ("HVMA") in the above-referenced matter and your letter to me dated June 30, 2005, in lieu of appearing at a deposition, I am enclosing an Affidavit signed by me stating that HVMA did not authorize Speights & Runyan to represent it and file a proof of claim on its behalf in the Grace bankruptcy.

Please note that the entity, "Harvard Public Health (Harvard Vanguard Medical Assoc.)" listed on the Proof of Claim form by Speights and Runyan is incorrect. Harvard Vanguard was never known as "Harvard Public Health." Its predecessor is Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Inc. ("HPHC"). I believe HPHC owned the building located at 23 Miner St., Boston, MA.

If you have any questions, I can be reached at 617-559-8016.

Very truly yours,

Amy D. Richard

Re: W.R. Grace Bankruptcy, Claim No. 00002785

Dear Sir and/or Madam:

I represent Building Laborers Local 310 in Cleveland, Ohio and have filed a Property Damage claim on their behalf, Claim No. 00002785. In reviewing the recently filed Exhibit B to Notice of Intent to Object (filed 12/6/2004), I noticed a claim that appears to have been filed on behalf of my client without authorization. It is Claim No. 11591 filed on behalf of Laborers 310 Union Office Building and is no. 956 on Exhibit B. The claim is being challenged for Materially Insufficient Supporting Information.

Please advise regarding the effect of this unauthorized claim upon the claim that I previously filed for Building Laborers Local 310. For your convenience, a copy of the Acknowledgement for Claim No. 00002785 together with the supporting documentation enclosed with the original claim is enclosed.

Very truly yours,

Richard L. Stoper, Jr.

Re: W.R. Grace Bankruptcy

Dear Mr. Dierkes:

This is to advise you that, to the best of my knowledge, neither Jefferson-Pilot Corporation nor any of its subsidiaries, retained the firm of Speights & Runyan to represent it or to file a proof of claim on its behalf in the matter of W.R. Grace & Co., et. al. Debtors, pending in the Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

I trust this will suffice to obviate the need for a deposition.

Please confirm.

Sincerely,

RE: SUBPOENA ICO IN RE W.R. GRACE & CO.
NO. 02-02239 (JFK)

Dear Mr. Dierkes:

This letter confirms our telephone conversation of June 29, 2005, and also responds to your letter of June 30, 2005. Employers Insurance Company of Wausau was served with a Subpoena for a 30(b)(6) Deposition in which it was to designate a representative for the purpose of testifying whether Wausau had ever retained the law firm of Speights & Runyan to represent Wausau in the subject bankruptcy case and whether Wausau authorized the law firm of Speights & Runyan to file a proof of claim.

As I indicated, I have made inquiries with regard to the parties who would normally be involved in bankruptcy litigation and have been advised that Wausau does not have any record of having participated in the W.R. Grace case. Based on the response to my inquiries, Wausau has no record of ever having retained the law firm of Speights & Runyan and has no record of authorizing the firm to file a proof of claim on Wausau's behalf.

It is my understanding that this letter will eliminate the need for an appearance at a deposition. Please contact me in the event you have any questions or obtain any additional information that would narrow the scope of an inquiry.

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Schoeppler
